PROGRAMME OUTCOME

Successful completion of the programme -

» Help the trainees to achieve technical soundness through extensive practice in teaching

» Encourage in acquainting with the latest developments in ICT in teaching, learning and office management.

» Respect and encourage democratic principles and habits

» Act for a pollution free environment

» Developed the awareness of social needs and problems and work for social upliftment

» Honour the needs of the student's challenged mentally, physically or socially.

» Promote national integration

» Encourage research/innovations in teaching and learning

COURSE OUTCOME

The course, in particular, will enable trainee teachers in-

1. Understanding different types, phases, and aspects of child development.
2. Identifying various aspects of education in post independent India.
3. Appreciating importance of language across the curriculum.
4. Understanding basic nature of different disciplines
5. recognizing importance of reading texts
6. Understanding different aspects of teaching and learning
7. Acquiring basic understanding on pedagogical aspects of different school subjects
8. Identifying different bases of curriculum, to recognize dynamics of curriculum
9. Identifying various tools and techniques of evaluation, recognizing different infrastructural facility, resources and records in an institution, and different services provided by it.
10. Appreciating the importance of drama and art in education.
11. Getting acquainted with overall conduct of school activities, planning instruction and its classroom delivery, way of keeping various school records, conducting community based activities
12. Identifying various gender issues in school and society and developing gender sensitivity.

13. Developing proper insight into inclusion
14. Identifying importance of guidance and counseling in school, recognizing various aspects of work and vocational education, identifying various emerging environmental issues and finding proper way to save it in order to ensure a greener and cleaner environment for sustainable development.
15. Understanding critically the importance of ICT in education,
16. Recognizing the importance of yoga education for understanding the self and its development.
17. Identifying the way of investigating different problems in schools conducting effective field survey.